Las Fallas

- I chose to burn high body standards for women. There is no such thing as the perfect body. Every body is beautiful. Society has made us believe you have to be a certain weight and size to be considered beautiful. We need to stop putting high standards on a person's body.
- The festival takes place in Valencia from the 15th to the 19th of March every year.

- Las Fallas is an annual celebration of the coming of spring. It is celebrated by burning artistic monuments.
- The first Fallas week was organized in 1932. Since then, the Fallas became the main festivity in the Valencia Region.
- The gigantic structures made of cardboard portraying current events and personalities.

Las Fallas

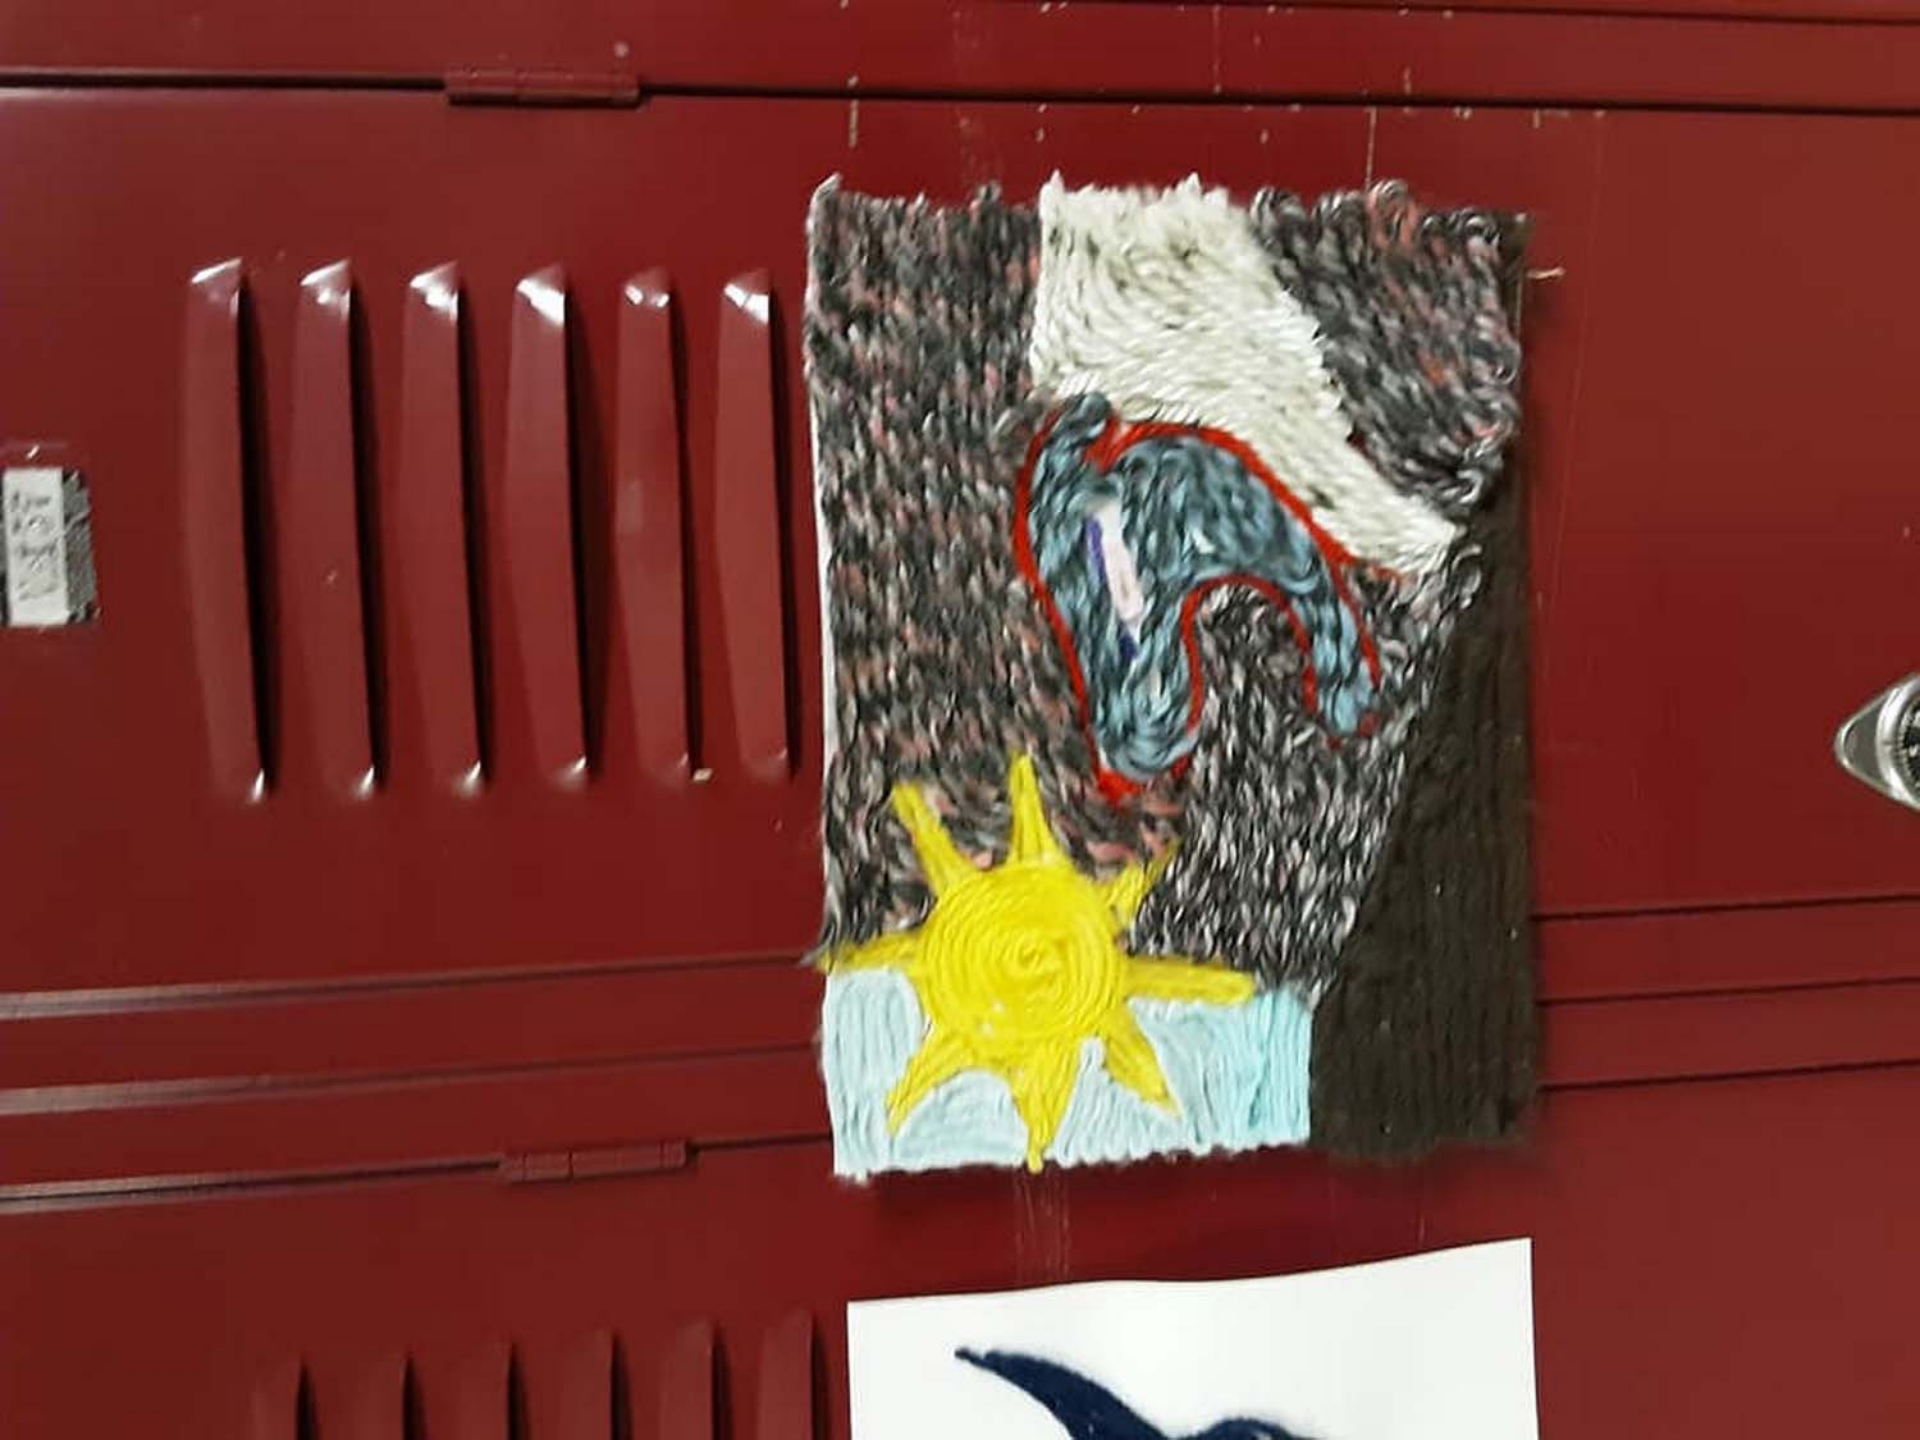
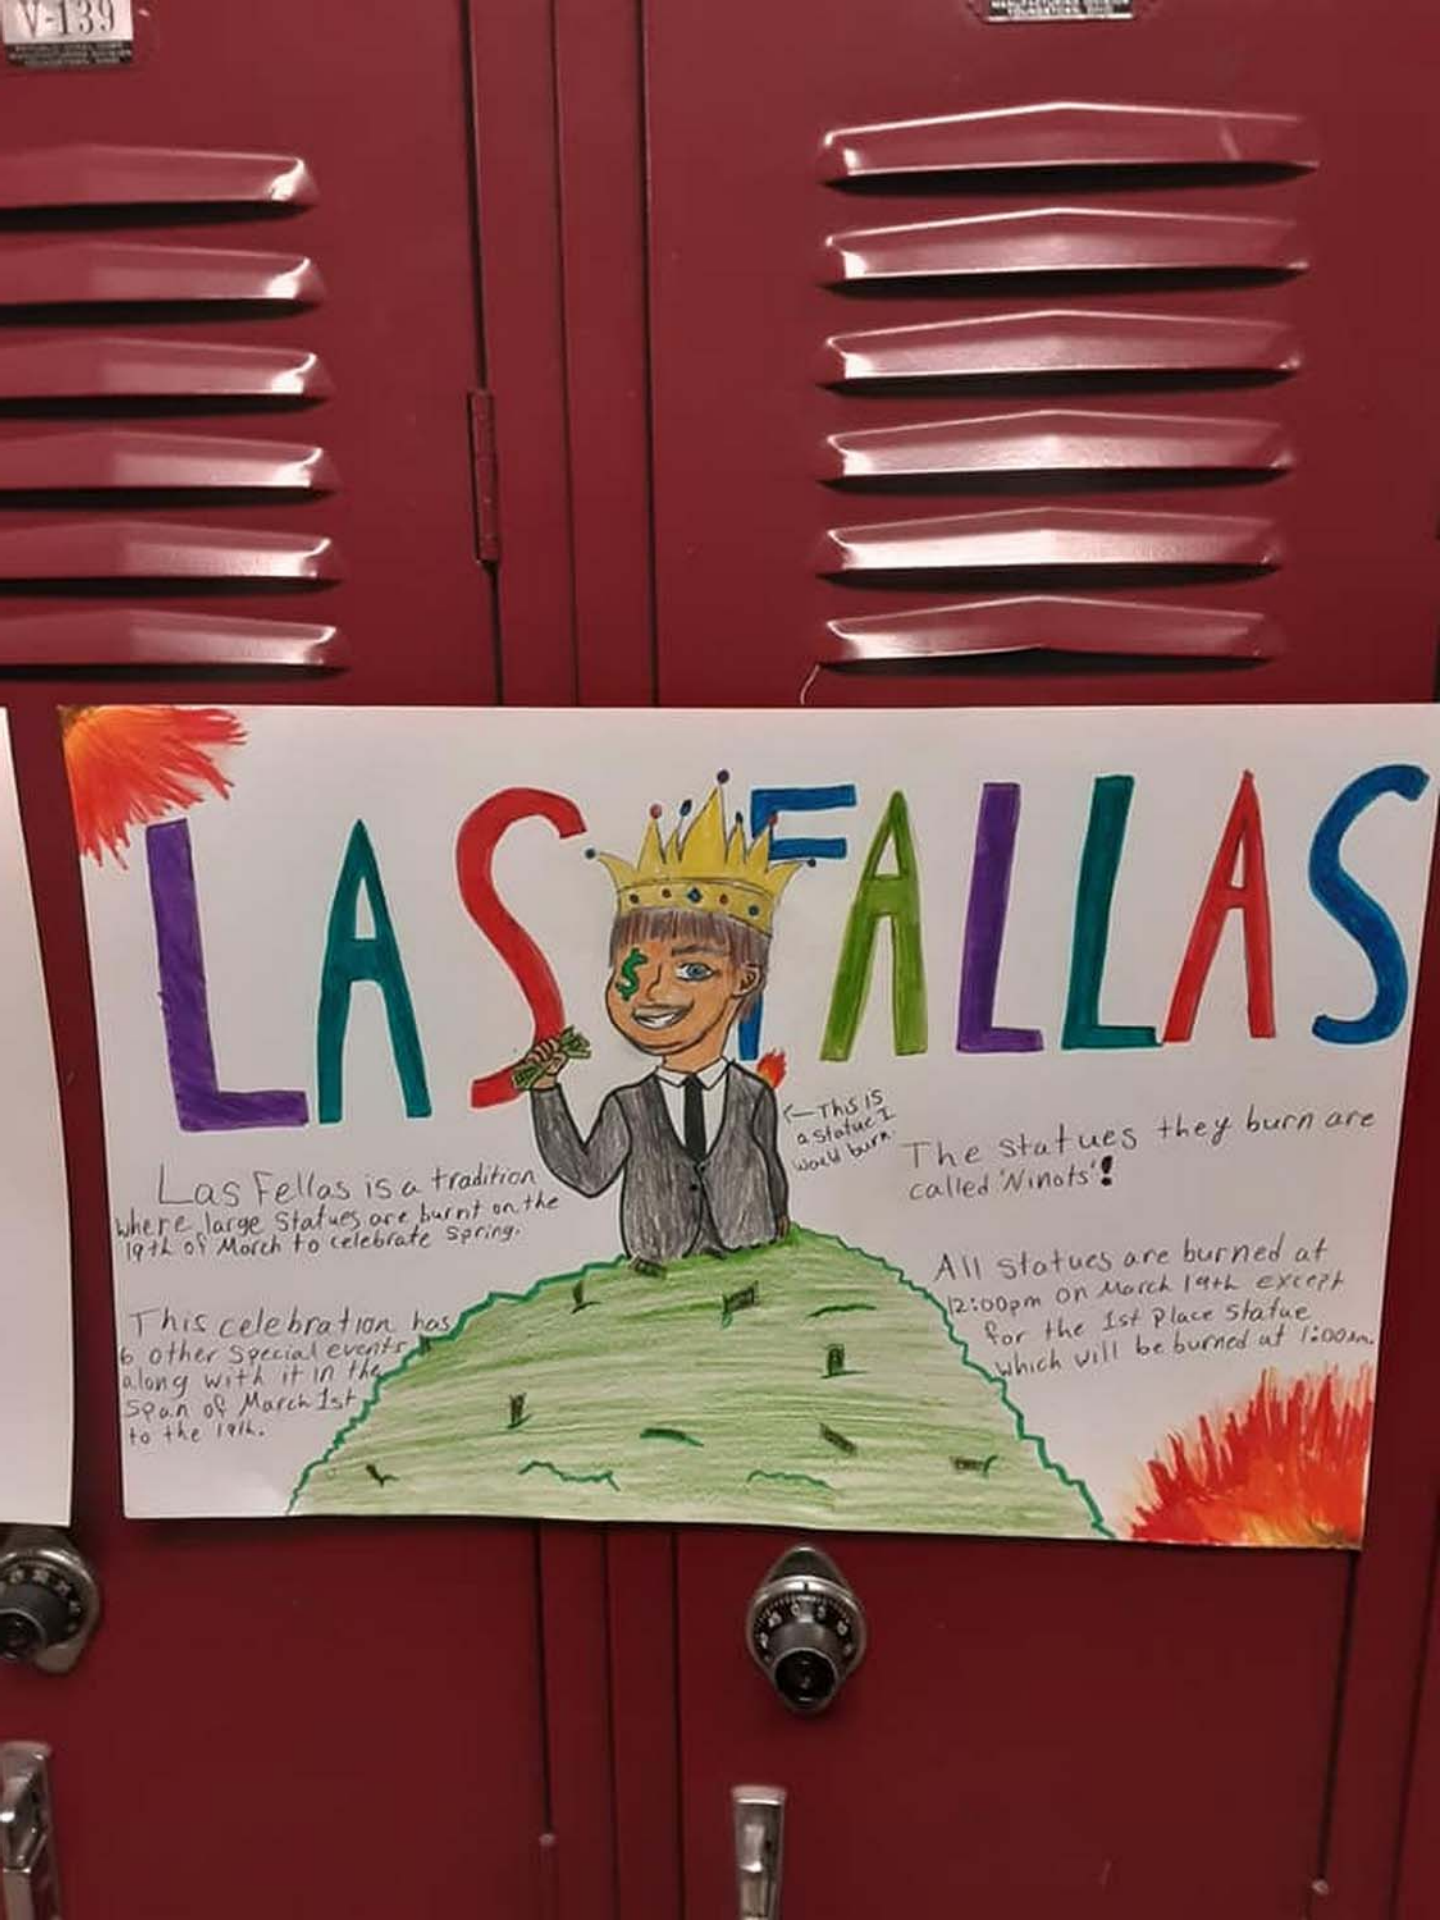
Las Fallas takes place in Valencia, Spain
The statues (also called fallas) are often cartoon-like characters
Las Fallas was once a pagan holiday but is now a religious
The festival lasts for 5 days, from March 15 to March 19
Statues to burn are often commissioned by Neighborhood Committees.
This festival is meant to signify the coming of Spring.





LAS FELLAS
Las Fellas is a tradition where large statues are burnt on the 19th of March to celebrate spring.
This celebration has 6 other special events along with it in the span of March 1st to the 19th.
<—This is a statue I would burn
The statues they burn are called 'Ninots'!
All statues are burned at 12:00pm on March 19th except for the 1st place statue which will be burned at 1:00pm.
